Sisters and brothers,
our baptismal vows call us to compassion and mercy
on behalf of those in need.
We offer our prayers for the church and the world.

Prayers of the People, concluding with:

Lord God,
you revealed your Son in the waters of the Jordan and anointed him with the power of the Holy Spirit to proclaim good news to all people.
Sanctify us by the same Spirit,
that we may proclaim the healing power of the gospel by acts of love in your name. Amen.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

I dare say that most of us don't remember our Baptism (save for those baptized as adults through the RCIA), as we were a bit young at the time. When I was entering the seminary, one of the documents I needed was a copy of my baptismal certificate. When I looked at the date (8/9/64), it dawned on me that I was baptized on my brother's (Tom's) fifth birthday. Perhaps that's why, growing up, he and I had a bit of an antagonistic relationship (e.g. he "taught" me how to ride a bike by taking me up the steepest hill in South Boston with the sole instruction to "hold on tight to the handlebars" and then proceeded to hurl me down the hill, headlong! Hmm...). In any event, we've overcome those differences and have become good friends!

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Jesus, to the protestation of John, is baptized in the Jordan so that he can "solemnize" what has been, up until this point, a ritual of purification rather than salvation. In our Sacraments which we celebrate in the Church, Jesus is at the center; Baptism is no different. In being baptized by John, Jesus "raises" the celebration of Baptism to the sacramental level, thus making it the "gateway" to other Sacraments. Throughout the centuries, the Church has wrestled with the question of baptism. The ("when" of Baptism has been debated for centuries, with the question centering on the readiness of the child to receive such a gift. In our Church, it is the parents who answer for the child in infant baptism; many wonder if this doesn't alter, if not negate, the power of the sacrament. I tend to think not, as we have other opportunities (such as First Eucharist, Reconciliation and Confirmation) throughout our lives to validate our faith.

In any event, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord gives us, as a Church, an opportunity to reflect on the gift that Baptism is for us. One of the great joys I have, as you might imagine, is to celebrate a baptism. It is made even more special when it can be celebrated at Mass, with the full support of the people. It highlights the importance of the community in the life of faith of the individual Catholic. While we, and we alone, receive the Sacraments of the Church, they are a sign and symbol of a larger reality. That reality is that it is in and through the community that we live our faith and it is in and through the community that this faith is sustained, nourished and strengthened. May we realize the gift that Baptism (and all Sacraments) is for the Church, the People of God. May we know God's love through the Sacraments, and may we share that love with all whom we meet.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

Holy Hour for Life, Forgiveness, and Healing

A Holy Hour for Life, Forgiveness, and Healing will be held on Wednesday, January 22, 2020 at 7:00 pm at St. Ann Parish, 95 North Main Street, West Bridgewater. This evening is part of the Archdiocesan observance of the National Day of Prayer and Penance marking the anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision legalizing abortion on demand. Led by Deacon Joseph Hopgood, Deacon Brendan Fitzgerald, and Deacon Leo Donoghue, all will pray together for respect for the dignity of human life from conception to natural death, for those who have been wounded by abortion, for those facing death, and for increased holiness in the Church. All are welcome to join us for this hour of prayer and reflection.

The Life of Our Parishes

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus tells us that "where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there in their midst" (MT 18:20). In that same way, when we gather to minister to God's people, Jesus is there with us.

FAMILY LIFE MINISTRY

The Family Life Ministry is committed to creating a supportive atmosphere for the growth and development of family life by addressing the spiritual and social needs of families in our parish and community. Members of this ministry monthly provide activities to the patients at Sachem Nursing Facility, donate money to the Saint Vincent de Paul Society, bring communion to the patients at Sachem, organize and run both the annual picnic and Easter Egg Hunt, and maintain the lending library in the basement of the church near the CCD Office. They meet once per month on the 2nd Tues of each month and are always looking for new members. If you think this ministry might be a good fit for you, please call the Rectory.

Fr. Stephen Lusiba wrote to give an update on the progress of the dormitory in Uganda, St. Benedict's School. All is going well and the window's have been installed. He sends his sincere thanks.

Baptismal Bib

Question:

At my grandson's Baptism, the priest put a bib on the baby. I do not remember seeing this before. Why is this done? Is it something new?

Answer:

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby's head. Others are simply placed on the baby's chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: "See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven." In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers and this is symbolized by the white garment.
