A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." - Mk 12:42-43

My Dear Friends in Christ,

In today's economically challenging times, most of us give what we can. Whether it be in time, talent or treasure, we give to God that which we are able. Today's gospel, often referred to as "The Widow's Mite", is a reminder and a recommitment to the principle that we are called to give to God everything we have, not just the "surplus" or "leftover" – whether it be in time, talent or treasure.

In Jesus' day, according to the Mishnah (the "oral Torah"), there were receptacles (13 in all) standing against the wall of the Court of Women which were used to collect the gifts of the faithful for the Temple treasury. Jesus and His disciples observed the people coming into the Temple who offered their gifts of support for the works of the Temple. The thing that struck Jesus, and the point of today's gospel, is the fact that, while many gave out of their surplus, the widow gave two leptons (the equivalent of two pennies), basically all that she had. This moved Jesus to comment, and the comment cut the Scribes and the Pharisees to the quick, for they knew the comment was meant for them.

Today's gospel is a poignant reminder to us that we owe God not just our surplus, our excess. We owe God all that we have, all that we are. We can give this in many ways. There is the aforementioned "schema" of "time, talent and treasure". You might be thinking to yourself, "well, yes Father Paul, we can give our time and talent, but don't you want our 'treasure'?" It would be foolish and disingenuous of me to sit here and say that the "treasure" part of the equation didn't matter. There are some in our community, however, who cannot give "treasure" but who can – and do – give of their "time" and "talent". I remember a situation with a young bride and groom who came to me to be married. They mentioned that they were paying for the wedding themselves, and if there is any way they could pay the Church offering over time, or come to another suitable arrangement, it would be appreciated. In speaking about this, the groom-to-be mentioned that he was a landscaper, and that he could "beautify" the property in lieu of the monetary offering. I jumped at the opportunity (knowing that the pastor had wanted to "spruce up the place"), and the arrangement was mutually beneficial.

God gives us an abundance of gifts. To some, God gives "treasure"; to some, "talent"; to some, "time"; to a lucky few, all three! No matter what God gives us, let us be prepared to give God our all, knowing that He has already given us His all. God gave Jesus to the world, and Jesus gave His life so that all might have life, and life abundantly. May we use our time, talent and/or treasure to the fullest, giving back to God all that He has given us.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

Today's readings speak of the "widow's mite", and how she gave everything she had when it came to honoring God. Jesus commended the widow for her generosity and told His disciples that we must do the same, not just giving from our "surplus" (that which is "left over") but out of our "want" (giving from the very start). When one looks at St. Francis, one can say that in the beginning of his life Francis was hesitant to give even of his surplus. He was accustomed to, and desirous of, the "good life" – of pleasure, of worldly desires. Upon his conversion, upon meeting the leper on the road, Francis' life took a dramatic turn.

When Francis met the leper on the road, he was on his way to another adventure, another opportunity to further his "stake" in the world. Upon meeting the leper, his mind, heart, and life were changed and he experienced a conversion which led him to give the very clothes off of his back. In exchanging clothes with the leper, Francis wasn't merely making a change of wardrobe, but truly a change of heart! In donning the clothes of the leper, Francis was making a statement about his life and the change that this conversion brought.

When we look at the gospel in light of St. Francis and his life, we can see a parallel. Francis, in the early part of his life, was like those who gave of their surplus. They, like Francis, gave merely out of obligation and out of a desire, perhaps like those scribes who "accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets" (Mark 12:38-39), to win esteem in the world. After his conversion, Francis was more like the widow (not looking for glory but to honor God). From exchanging his clothes with the leper on the road to giving his clothes to his father in the town square, Francis' giving of these material goods signified an interior change. From that point on, Francis' focus was aligning himself with the poor of the world. His conversion brought about a desire to please God above all else, and it showed in the formation of the Franciscan Order. As Secular Franciscans, this is our focus as well – to please God above all else. May we all experience such a conversion – of mind, heart, and life. May we see Christ in others and be Christ for others, especially the materially, emotionally, and spiritually impoverished.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul

Christmas Sharing

After surveying our Christmas Sharing families, we will again ask you for gift cards that will be distributed to the families and senior citizens. The following stores are preferred: Target, Walmart, Kohl's, Amazon. We are asking for gift cards in any amount up to $50. This will allow us the flexibility to give an amount appropriate to the family or senior citizen. We will also need $25 Trucchi's or Market Basket cards for families and Senior Citizens, and items for the Senior Citizens' gift bags. All gift cards should be placed in an envelope marked "Christmas Sharing" in the St. Vincent dePaul boxes at the doors of the church, or sent to Linda Santry. They must be received by December 5th, to allow the parents' time to purchase gifts before Christmas. Checks should be made out to St. Ann's, with "Christmas Sharing" in the memo line. There is a box at the rear of the church for Senior Citizens gift bag items.

This year we will also be collecting toys for the parents to choose from for their children. There will be a bin in the back of the church for you to place new toys for children aged 1 to 16.

See the handout on November 9/10th for more details.
