SECON D SUNDAY
OF ADVENT

A VOICE OF ONE CRYING OUT IN THE DESERT:

"PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD,

MAKE STRAIGHT HIS PATHS.

EVERY VALLEY SHALL BE FILLED

AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL SHALL BE MADE LOW."

—LUKE 3:4-5

My Dear Friends in Christ,

When John the Baptist came upon the scene, he was unlike anything anyone had seen before. Yes, he spoke of repentance, as other prophets had. Yes, he spoke with authority and clarity, as other prophets had. Unlike other prophets, however, his arrival was heralded by those before him. No other prophet could lay claim to this.

When Isaiah spoke of John (without naming him), there was an immediacy to the proclamation that had never been heard of before. This is why many thought that John was “THE ONE”. By his unusual nature (wearing camel hair in the desert, feeding on locusts and wild honey), many people thought that John was the Messiah. They thought that these characteristics were surely the “hallmarks” of the Promised One of God. After all, no prophet had been spoken of before his arrival, and certainly no other prophet spoke with the level of authority with which John spoke.

Luke, however, in today’s gospel puts that notion to rest. Speaking of “a voice of one crying out in the desert: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths” (Lk 3:4, by way of Isaiah 40:3-5) Luke was obviously alluding to someone else other than John. . .and this, I’m sure, is perfectly fine with John. He knew he was just a messenger, and not The Message. John knew that his job was to lay the groundwork for one who is coming, one far greater than he.

John the Baptist’s “job” was to prepare the world for the coming of the Messiah; this is our job as well. As Catholic-Christians, we are called to let the world know that not only is the Messiah coming, but that He is already here. This is the great mystery of the Incarnation, which we will celebrate in a few short weeks. Jesus, who is to come to us as the “babe in the manger”, is already in our midst. Yes, we celebrate Christmas as the promise of God fulfilled, the “Word made flesh”. We cannot forget, however, that Jesus is in our midst, here and now. If we walk through the Advent Season thinking that we’re doing so alone, we are sadly mistaken. Our “walk of faith” towards the Kingdom can only be realized if we come to recognize the presence of Jesus in our world here and now. It is this “two-fold coming” (the coming of the Christ Child and the coming of the King of Glory) that we celebrate each and every time we gather as a family of faith, a community of believers.

May we come to celebrate Jesus when He comes to us at Christmas, but may we also celebrate His presence with us now. May we look to the Lord to lead us to deeper understanding of Him...and ourselves. May we use this Advent Season to deepen our relationship with the Lord, who calls us to share His presence with all whom we meet.

Wishing you continued Advent Blessings,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

In today's gospel, our focus is on John the Baptist, the "cousin" of Jesus and the "herald" of the Messiah. At this point in the career of John, we hear how he offers a "baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins" (John 3:3). In doing this, John stands out and is seen as "a voice of one crying out in the desert" (John 3:4). The image that these phrases convey can be daunting, demanding, and (even) lonely ones. To make such a bold proclamation, to offer such a life-changing encounter, one must be sure in their mission and confident in their message. The thing with John the Baptist, like with most preachers, is that the message that he is conveying is not his. The message of the preacher is called to have God as its focus. This is true of John the Baptist, and it is true of St. Francis of Assisi.

When one looks at the life of St. Francis, one sees a man who is not lacking in confidence. He is bold in his actions and movements, especially before his conversion. As a soldier, Francis is seen as a "man of the world". As a young man, Francis had no lack of "social" friends (I put that in quote because I wonder how many of them stuck around when he disavowed himself of his father's riches!), and no lack of confidence. After his conversion, the hallmark of Francis' life was humility. This humility, however, was coupled with a boldness when it came to embracing things antithetical to the world, and contrary to his former way of life. He took on "Lady Poverty" as a companion in the same way he took on those around him as companions. His acceptance of this new way of living, being one with the leperous and the poor, was as bold as when he took on the life of a soldier.

John the Baptist was used by God to further His mission, the building up of the Kingdom of God. In much the same way, Francis was used by God to further that same mission. Francis was called to walk with the poor in a particular way. Francis saw the poor as "living stones", with which he could build up the Body of Christ and the Church. Francis saw Christ in the poor, and strove to be Christ for them. In recognizing Christ in all things, Francis was often (like John the Baptist) a "voice of one crying out in the desert". John the Baptist's cry was to "make straight the path" for Christ; in serving the poor and in seeing God in all created things, Francis' was called to "rebuild" the Church. May we have the courage of men like John the Baptist and Francis of Assisi. May we attune our minds, hearts, and lives to who God is calling us to be. May we know His voice, even if it means being a "voice of one crying out in the desert", knowing that we are never alone and that God is always with us.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul

THE DEACON'S COLUMN

Litany to St. Joseph

For the last six months I've shared with you many reflections on St. Joseph as we marked the "Year of St. Joseph." It has been a wonderful and blessed experience to reflect on St. Joseph and the unique relationship he was (IS) called to share. Without fear he took Mary into his home and took her Son, Jesus, as his own. As we end the Year of St. Joseph, I want to share with you the Litany of St. Joseph. My prayer is that you welcome St. Joseph into your homes and into your hearts so that you too might receive the ones he was called to care for—Mary and Jesus. Towards that end I share with you the Litany of St. Joseph.

Holy Mary, pray for us.
 St. Joseph, pray for us.
 Illustrious son of David, pray for us.

Let's Kick Off Christmas Fundraiser

On December 19th our Collaborative is having a "Let's Kick Off Christmas" Event for the collaborative at St. John's from 11:30-4:30.

The day will be packed with many fun-filled family activities for all ages. These events include:

Teams of Christmas Carolers that you can order to come to your house to sing for your family or you can request them to go to a friend or family members house to sing.

In addition to this there will be many activities happening back at St John's including:

- Pony rides
- Christmas Caroling Hay Rides
- Face painting
- Christmas Craft Tables
- Raffles
- Door Prizes
- Food

It promises to be a fun-filled day.

Monies raised will support our Faith Formation Program and our Collaborative Parish Center Renovation Fund. We will also make a donation to the Baker Family Scholarship Fund.

How can I help you might ask?

You may help in the following ways:

Order Christmas Carolers to come to your home or send them to a friend or family member's home as an early Christmas present.

Take an ad out in our Christmas Carol Advertisement Book.

Help sponsor the cost of the hay ride or pony rides

Rent a craft table

Come to the event and have fun!

Hello,

At times during the pandemic congregational singing was discouraged and congregants were ushered out of the church in a safe manner at the end of mass during the closing hymn. Now that restrictions have been lifted it is a good time to remind ourselves that a liturgy begins with the first notes of the opening song and ends with the final notes of the closing song. We ask that you stay and participate in the closing song if you know the words or stay and enjoy it if you don't know the words. The closing song is one last opportunity to sing God's praises in church before we leave to go about our week. We are thrilled to have hymn books back in the pews so everyone can read along and SING!!!

Thank you and God Bless.

-The Together in Christ Collaborative Music -Team.

We are looking forward to the opening of grades 1 –8 on December 5th . Classes for grades 1-6 will meet at Saint John’s upper church.
