PLEASE HELP.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

I cannot look at our First Reading, taken from the Book of (the Prophet) Isaiah, without thinking back to my Ordination to the Priesthood some 25 years ago. This reading was proclaimed at my ordination ceremony, and it is dear to my heart. It speaks eloquently of how a priest is to “tend his flock”. The priest is, indeed, meant to “bring glad tidings to the poor, to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the Lord, and a day of vindication by our God” (Is 61:1-2A). I’ve always striven to do this; admittedly, I haven’t always “hit the mark” but it wasn’t for lack of effort!

This first reading is a “clarion call” to all, as well, who are baptized into the faith. It is by virtue of the “baptismal call”, placed on our hearts at Baptism, in which we are to respond to the needs of our brothers and sisters. It is to them that we are to “bring glad tidings... heal...proclaim” and “announce” (ibid). In undertaking these actions, we model ourselves after the many men and women of faith who have gone before us. John the Baptist is one of those who stand before us as a model of faith.

In today’s gospel, John is once again featured. While he eschews claims to be the Christ (n.b. Jn 1:20), he does not shy away from his missionary duties. He proclaims himself to be that “voice of one crying out in the desert” (Jn 1:23); in doing so, John fulfills that prophetic call for which he was born, for which he was chosen. We, ourselves, are called to speak a prophetic word, again by virtue of our baptismal call. If we are worried about what that word is, or how it is to come out, we need not worry! Jesus has promised us that when we are to speak on His behalf, we will be given the words to say. It is the Holy Spirit that will be speaking, using us as a “vessel” for that prophetic word. So if you feel that “tug” on your heart to offer a word of comfort, consolation or correction, let the Holy Spirit “take the wheel” and all will be well.

May we have the courage to be that “voice of one crying out in the desert” (ibid). May we know that it is the Holy Spirit of God which is directing us to speak. May we trust that the word being offered will bring peace to the hearer. May we use this Advent Season to further our relationship with Jesus, who will come “soon and very soon”.

A (Continued) Blessed Advent Season to All,

Fr. Paul

Christmas Sharing

Christmas Sharing has to be different this year, due to the Pandemic. This year we are asking you to purchase gift cards that will be distributed to the families, Project Grad Teen Moms, and senior citizens. The following stores are preferred: Target, Walmart, Kohl's, Amazon, We are asking for gift cards in any amount up to $50. This will allow us the flexibility to give an amount appropriate to the family, teen mom or senior citizen. All gift cards should be placed in an envelope marked "Christmas Sharing" in the St. Vincent dePaul boxes at the doors of the church, or sent to Linda Santry. Gift cards for groceries are no longer needed. We have an abundance. They must be received by December 13th, to allow the parents time to purchase gifts before Christmas. See the handout on November 21/22 for more details.

If there are any questions, please call or email Linda Santry: 508-586-6535 or linda@santry.org

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Jubilant to Share

Sometimes you have something to share with people that causes you to well up inside with excitement to the point of going crazy. A pregnancy test, a pay raise, a college acceptance, a wedding or engagement are all examples of moments in life when we might be bursting at the seams to tell somebody the good news. When we finally get the chance to tell somebody, joy just seems to flow through us with ease. We literally want the entire world to share in our jubilation.

When was the last time you shared with a friend or loved one how much your faith in Jesus means to you? You don't feel the same motivation to share? Are you not overwhelmed with a desire to spread the Good News?

Don't feel bad. You are not alone. As Christians, we often fail to grasp the powerful implications of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. We can become complacent and lose sight of what matters the most. That is when sharing with others about our faith seems uncomfortable.

Faith is a gift. As everyday stewards we are called to share with others what God has given us. Advent is a great time to grow in our faith and love of the Lord. The more we cultivate our faith and the closer we draw to Him, the more we will want to share about Him. We might not have the impact of John the Baptist in the course of human history, but our proclamation of the Gospel to another might be the gift that changes their history.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER FOR PEACE

Great God of Peace, our world has been filled with senseless tragedies, torn apart by war and marred by acts of hate and prejudice Today, as never before, we pray for Your loving peace.

May seeking peace be the guiding force in the hearts of our world leaders. May every man, woman, and child respect the sanctity of life and realize how precious all human life is.

We celebrate the birth of Your son, Jesus and remember His words: "Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. My peace I leave with you, my peace I give you." This Christmas and always may we embrace Your wonderful gift of peace with courage and conviction.

Amen

“Say No to ROE”

The state legislature has extended the session until January 5th, 2021. Please remind the members of the Joint Committee on Judiciary that you oppose the expansion of abortion in Massachusetts. Please call the Committee at 617-722-2396 and let them know you are opposed to H3320 and S1209 – the ROE legislation. Every telephone call helps!

Remember these bills would remove:

- The requirement that young girls obtain consent before an abortion
- The requirement that efforts be made to save a living baby who survives abortion
- The requirement that late term abortions be performed in hospitals
- The bills would allow abortion on demand for all nine months of pregnancy.

For more information about how the ROE legislation would expand abortion in Massachusetts visit www.macatholic.org.

Obligation: Mass or Communion?

Question: Are Catholics obligated to attend Mass each Sunday, or receive Communion each Sunday?

Answer:

The questions about Mass attendance and the reception of Holy Communion are clearly outlined in what are traditionally called the “Precepts” of the Church. These specific teachings are intended to stand alongside the Ten Commandments as fundamental practices for Catholics and are outlined in the Code of Canon Law. The obligations related to Mass attendance and receiving Communion are outlined in the first and third precepts, which we find quoted in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (no. 2042):

The first precept ("You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor") requires the faithful to sanctify the day commemorating the Resurrection of the Lord as well as the principal liturgical feasts honoring the mysteries of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the saints; in the first place, by participating in the Eucharistic celebration, in which the Christian community is gathered, and by resting from those works and activities which could impede such a sanctification of these days.

The third precept ("You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season") guarantees as a minimum the reception of the Lord's Body and Blood in connection with the Paschal feasts, the origin and center of the Christian liturgy.

Rather than seeing these as obligations that are simply to be fulfilled out of a sense of duty, Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us of the grace that is made available to us when we gather for Sunday celebrations of the Eucharist: “Sunday is the day which is at the very heart of the Christian life... Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human” (Dies Domini, no. 7). ©LPI

As people begin to come back to Mass and those of us who have been attending become more relaxed after having attended Mass for a few weeks, it is important that we continue to follow the guidelines set up to ensure our safety.

The guidelines for the Archdiocese can be found on line at RCAB Office of Risk Management. Rcabrisk.org/covid.
