THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

All things came to be through him,
and without him nothing came to be.
What came to be through him was life,
and this life was the light of the human race.

- Jn 1:3-4

DEACON'S CORNER

“ I am the servant of the Lord, may it be done according to Your Word” These words changed not only Mary’s life, but the life of the world. Her response was heroic. Her words represent her humble faith and trust in what the Angel was telling her They represent a willingness to believe what is not immediately apparent, a readiness to be used in risky and even painful ways. If Mary had not said yes, would we not be celebrating Christmas tomorrow?

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Robert Frost once wrote that “home is the place, that when you go there, they have to take you in”. A rather wry statement, it should “ring true” for most (if not all) of us. I know that at the end of my day, when I come home I have at least one who is happy to see me – my dog, Nellie. Nellie and I are, for all intents and purposes, family. When I had my picture taken a couple of years back for the parish website, more than one person asked if Nellie was going to be in the photo; I said, “Of course – she’s family!” This may be stretching what one thinks of as family, but when I think of the qualities which Nellie has – unconditional love, loyalty, a sense of belonging – it fits what I think of when I reflect on family life.

This day, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Family (of Jesus, Mary and Joseph), a celebration of what, and who, God calls us to be. The Holy Family is for us the most perfect image we have here on earth of what it means to be a family. When one thinks of the sacrifices they made to maintain the “family unit”, it boggles the mind! They endured long journeys, unsettled accommodations and (for Mary and Joseph) the loss of an only child. I look at the families of our parish and see the struggles they endure in this day and age – an unsettled economy which threatens the livelihood of one (or both) of the adults, the assault of conflicting, often vulgar, media images on our children and the stress of balancing family life with the many commitments the world puts upon them (parents and children alike). I often wonder how the Holy Family would have handled it, and I keep coming back to one answer – trust in God. It is only through trust, born of faith that kept the Holy Family intact. The same is true for us; the main thing which will keep the “family unit” whole and undivided is faith – faith in God, faith in one another. This is certainly not an easy thing to achieve or maintain. It takes hard work, day in and day out. It takes a level of commitment that the world neither understands nor appreciates. We have “glimpses” of the family unit being honored and celebrated, but by and large the family is often held up to ridicule. Just look at how the media portrays most families – fathers are all too often portrayed as overbearing tyrants or lame simpletons, mothers are often seen as either lazy or manipulative, and children are seen as either greedy or entitled. This may happen at times but it is not (thank God) the norm, nor should it be celebrated as such.

The Feast of the Holy Family gives us a better perspective of how family life should be. It is not without challenges, as we see in the lives of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. It is not without work, as we reflect upon our second reading regarding how we are to conduct our lives. And it is not without God, as we see throughout the scriptures. If we are to model ourselves after the Holy Family, let us put on our hearts all the things of which St. Paul speaks – “compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience” (Col 3:12). Let us not waste a moment to ponder, as did the Holy Family, all the good things the Lord has done for us!

A Blessed Christmas Season to One and All,

Fr. Paul

A Christmas Reflection

Found in this beautiful season of hope and love is a perfect opportunity to take a walk through the footprints we have left behind in 2017 from Virginia to Rome. There is much to be thankful for and many blessings to recognize.

Our prayers continued to create stepping stones for our Parishioners to move along their own personal faith journeys. With over 30 programs that encompass all ages, we laughed, we cried, and we grew as a family in faith. Some highlights include Vacation Bible School, Pancakes with the Pastor, Prayer Group, Ultreya, Advent and Lenten Mission, and service projects for the Parish and service organizations like Catholic Heart Work Camp. We shared wonderful evenings together like our First Annual Gala Night at the Auction and the Elvis Oldies Show. The fall brought new programs like our Family Mass, Book Club, Pasta with the Pastor, and our first Christmas Open House.

Through all of the programs our families and parishioners have continued to grow in their love of Christ. It is our fervent hope and prayer that our Collaborative continues to grow in faith, hope and love. It is by the grace of God that we have been able to bring these programs to fruition. It will be by the grace of God that we continue to walk together in our journey of faith.

We are very grateful to our Adult and Youth Committees for all their work facing the changes brought about in our first year of Collaboration. Even with the challenges they kept moving forward, building one step at a time, on our mission to create a vibrant faith family.

What awaits our Ministry in 2018? With your help, participation, good works, and most importantly, prayer we will leave even more footprints that lead those involved ever closer to the love of Jesus.

Wishing you and your family a blessed Christmas Season!

Speaking of 2018: Join us for our Annual Skate Night at Bridgewater Ice Arena on December 27th from 6:00-8:00 pm or our Winter Wonderland Weekend for Martin Luther King Weekend in North Conway. You can ski, tube, ride a winter roller-coaster or enjoy shopping in North Conway. This was planned by one of our wonderful teens and has something for everyone. Call 508-838-8490 or email at nhenn71@hotmail.com for details on these or any of our programs.

The Magnificat

*My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior
for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his Name.*

*He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.*

*He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.*

*He has come to the help of his servant Israel
for he remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers,
to Abraham and his children forever.*

St. Vincent de Paul - St. John's Conference

Fourth Sunday of Advent:

Imagine how Mary felt at the birth of Jesus: excited, awed, frightened. Deep faith was her light in the darkness, for Jesus was born during the night of the year when darkness is the longest.

Your generous gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring light into the darkness surrounding the hearts of those struggling in our community. Putting food on the table or heating oil in their tank will help them realize the long lasting, and deep joy of Christmas.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is always available if you need help. Please call our HOTLINE at 508-378-3760 and leave a message. God Bless and have a very Merry Christmas.
