Dear Friends,

I would like to dedicate my column this weekend to William J. Browne who passed away this past week and whose funeral was celebrated on Friday. Bill, as we all knew him, was a wonderful friend whom everyone admired. I chose Bill to receive St. John's first "Person of the Year Award" some time ago. It was not a difficult decision. Bill was the usher at the 4:00 Mass on Saturday for over 40 years and was a teacher at the East Bridgewater Middle School for 29 years. Not many other people have contributed more to their Church and community than Bill Browne.

I want to extend my sympathy to Louise, his wife of 56 years and to his children, Anthony, and Margaret.

Also, My Aunt Francis "Rita" Pritchard also died this week at the age of 93. My Aunt died at St. Joseph Manor in Brockton. She received loving care there by the staff for which my family is very grateful. Rita is my God Mother and since she never married she was everyone's favorite Aunt. I want to thank my staff for their many kindnesses shown to me and my family this week.

May Rita Pritchard and Bill Browne rest in Peace.

God, Bless,
Fr. Wally
