St. Ann & St. John*

*September 9, 2018
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time*

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

DEACON BRENDAN'S CORNER

Grandparents Day Blessing

God our Father,
you create all things in this world
as gifts for your created beings.

This day is made holy
by the presence of new life,
made real by the love of spouses
and their collaboration with you.

On this day bless all grandparents and their grandchildren.

May they both praise you
for their place in the world.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

My Dear Friends in Christ,

In the Rite of Baptism, there is an optional “action” undertaken by the priest/deacon in which the “Prayer of Ephphatha” is invoked. It is a prayer in which the celebrant blesses the ears and mouth of the one being baptized, thus readying that person for hearing and speaking God’s word. The word “ephphatha” means “be opened”, and it was used by Jesus to cure the man with the speech impediment.

Jesus, in healing the deaf man, did more than restore the man’s hearing. He brought him “back to life” in a real way, restoring him to fullness of relationship within the community. While the scripture does not say this, it is assumed (given the feelings of the culture of Jesus’ day) that the man born deaf must be a sinner. Sin and sickness were so closely “linked” that the worse the illness/impediment, the worse the sin. The deaf man, therefore, must be a sinner. In healing the man with the impediment, Jesus shows Himself to be the master of sin and sickness, with the ability to break the “chains” of sin and free one who is “bound” in this way.

One of the interesting aspects of this healing comes after it. Jesus orders the healed man (and those around him) not to tell anyone of this healing. Of course, human nature being what it is, the more Jesus tells them not to speak of this healing the more they do so. This “spreading the good news” is human and natural – and Jesus knows it, I think. I believe that Jesus, who knew human nature (being fully human Himself, of course!) knew exactly how people would react; he counted on that reaction to assist Him in sharing God’s healing power.

Where is it that we need healing? Where is it that we have been healed? Who is it among family, friends and neighbors that need to hear the “good news” of God’s goodness to us? May we have the insight to recognize the good God had done for us. May we have the courage to share this good news with all whom we meet!

A Blessed Week to All,

Fr. Paul

Patriot Day

Heavenly Father, Creator of All, You have created the human person as good. You have placed us in the world as one human family, as sisters and brothers. We pray today for all victims of violence across the world, for the healing of their mind and body, for their mourning family members, for the repose of their souls. Jesus, You have told us to love our enemies, and to pray for those who persecute us. Give us the strength and courage to forgive. Remove all lingering desire for revenge. Holy Spirit, reveal to us the mercy of God. Give us the gift of Your peace that surpasses all understanding. Amen.

The gospel today hits home closer than we may think. What traditions do we blindly cling to? Perhaps it is enough for us just to go to Mass on Sunday? Do we keep the letter of the law and miss entirely the spirit of the law. Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living: self-giving for the sake of others.

As you give your gift to the poor through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, in your heart you also will find the good news of God's love.

Call the Saint Vincent DePaul HOTLINE at 508-378-3760 if you need food or other assistance.
