My Dear Friends in Christ,

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Christ the King, marking the last Sunday in the liturgical year (where did the time go?!). Next week, we move into Advent, that great time of preparation for the coming of the Christ Child. It is also a time of preparation for the coming of the Lord as the King of Glory, but we have the next four weeks to explore that. On this week, we celebrate the “kingship” of Christ. I put the word in quotes not to minimize its importance, but to highlight the fact that Christ’s Kingship is unlike that of an “earthly” king. Jesus’ kingship is one of service, humility and love, rather than one of power and prestige. Today’s gospel passage shows this fact clearly.

In the gospel passage before us, from Luke, we move “fast forward” into the Crucifixion. Jesus, in His final moments here on earth before His death (and resurrection and ascension), isn’t presenting a very “kingly” image (at least not by earthly standards). He is being mocked and taunted, being called upon to “prove” His kingly stature and power. What they (the crowd and one of the thieves being crucified with Jesus) don’t get is that this is exactly the type of kingship Jesus wishes to portray. Humble, obedient to the will of God, even forgiving (to the “good thief”), Jesus shows to those around Him what his mission was, and is, all about. It is a perfect segue, in fact, to the Advent Season, when we prepare for the two-fold coming of Christ – His coming as the Christ-Child, and His arrival as the King of Glory (at the end of time). Jesus is living out, in this gospel passage, what our lives are to be all about as well. As we conclude our liturgical year, it is a good time to reflect upon how we see Jesus. Do we see Jesus as the crowd sees Him – weak, powerless, a “pushover”, or do we see Him as He really is – humble, obedient and offering the ultimate gift in taking our sins upon Himself and thus saving the world?

This day offers us an opportunity to figure out who Jesus is for us. For many, Jesus is a prophet; for many, a holy man. Jesus is all of that – and more. Jesus came into the world to die – that fact is made clear by the events of today’s gospel. To what ends the death of Jesus accomplishes have yet to be realized, because we are still living our faith out on earth. There will come a time, however, when the meaning and power of Jesus’ actions will become perfectly clear. This will happen at the end of time, when Jesus comes again to call us home to the Kingdom. Will we be ready, willing and able to answer that call? Now is the time to prepare, because the time of this event is not known by us. It is only known by God. May we use this time – the Solemnity of Christ the King, as well as the Advent Season – to prepare our minds, hearts and lives for Jesus’ coming – His coming as the Christ-Child and His coming as the King of Glory.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

SOMETHING TO PRAY ABOUT — FROM THE VOCATIONS MINISTRY

Our ministry is dedicated to trying to create a “culture of vocations” in our Together in Christ Collaboration since we are all called to work on discerning our vocations throughout our lives.

No matter what our age or what we are currently doing with our lives, we should be asking what God is calling us to do next. We all belong to God and everything we have is from God. So we should always be asking Him what He desire us to do with this gift of life He has given us.

THANKS TO ALL who joined in saying extra prays for vocations the week of November 3 - 9. Additional “Family Prayer for Vocations” cards and extra pamphlets with the “Rosary for Vocations” are till available at the doors of both churches for those who did not pick them up yet. We hope everyone will continue to add these prayers to their regular prayer life!!

“If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts: Psalm 95

How Would You Rule Your Kingdom?

It would be kind of awesome to be a king or queen! Absolute rule, untold wealth, and people answering your every beck and call are things that wouldn't be half bad. Of course, I would be a benevolent monarch, and I would hope that all my subjects would love me. They could cheer me as I came out of the palace, and I think my popularity ratings in the polls would be through the roof. But if they weren't, that would be fine, too, because I would rule the kingdom. And that means no throwing me out of office. Talk about job security!

As great as that sounds, the King of kings could have had all that as well, but instead, he chose quite a different path. He gave up absolute rule so all his subjects could have the free will to choose to follow him. He gave up untold wealth so he could be treated like a common criminal and receive a death sentence. He gave up having servants at his disposal so he could be the servant of all his subjects himself. Yes, he was the King of kings, but he was nothing like a typical king. As much as I think it would be great to be a king myself, I would rather emulate this King instead.

Who would you rather be like? You could have it all or choose to give away everything. You could choose a path of luxury or a path of trial. You could be respected by many or find yourself in a culture that increasingly finds you objectionable. Who would you rather be like? Do you arrive at an answer quickly, or do you need some time to think about it? The King of kings awaits your reply.

— Tracy Earl Welliver

Advent Wreath

Question:

What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer:

Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.
